

Please leave the satellite radio alone!! This is the first significant radio improvement in decades and is being enjoyed by millions. We like the local traffic and weather and don't care if local stations (some of which I continue to listen to) feel threatened by quality broadcasting. This is how capitalism is supposed to work!!!